Support The ABCD

This weekend, we are all invited to participate in the ABCD and bring hope to others and help them experience the transformative love of Christ— a love so powerful that it can heal the sick, convert hearts and change the course of someone's life- Whether it is through advocacy, education, housing, or serving the poor— just to name a few. ABCD is bringing hope to those in need. Please join us and be an agent of home. Visit www.sanpedroparish.org, click the WeShare icon, contact the San Pedro Parish office at 305.852.5372 or utilize the new "Text -To-Give" program by texting "Pedro" to 833-336-9083 to receive a link to contribute.

Saints And Special Observances

Sunday: Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Tuesday: Memorial of St. Thomas Aquinas, Priest & Dr. of the Church

Friday: Memorial of St. John Bosco, Priest

Rejoicing in the Lord

In the first reading, Ezra gets a strange reaction from the people to whom he reads the book of the law. First they lie down, with faces to the ground, and then they all are weeping. Remember the background of this reading. The people of Israel had returned from exile and needed to become a unified nation. Many probably didn't know that they had been breaking the law. Others might have been overwhelmed with all the requirements of the law.

Ezra and Nehemiah console the people by reminding them that their return makes this a day "holy to the Lord" (Nehemiah 8:10). He adds that they would get strength from "rejoicing in the Lord." That may be good advice for us also.

We might find ourselves so trapped in sin that we think we could never be forgiven. We need to remember that Jesus loved sinners so much, he gave his life on the cross to free us from sin. No sin can be so bad that God's love cannot forgive it. In fact, the more I have to repent, the more God wants to forgive. So we can rejoice in the Lord's forgiveness and the Spirit will give us the strength to change our lives.

And what about those who find the law overwhelming? That can be because we have forgotten Jesus' saying that all of God's laws are contained in the command to love God and love our neighbor as we love ourselves. The more we come to accept God's presence in our lives and see God in others, the easier it becomes to keep the law of love.

Men's Club Meeting! Join Us!

The next Men's Club meeting will be held on Tuesday, February 4th @ 5pm in Williams Hall. Everyone welcome! Come see what we're all about!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The cause of church unity is commended to Christians for prayer and action every year around this time. This week is not so much to focus on the many divisions within the Christian family, but on bonds of faith and mission. Even though Christians have always shown an inclination to fracture, spin off, and mutate into new expressions, recent history shows some new points of convergence and agreement. Catholics are more firmly rooted in the word of God, for example, and many Protestants are more likely to celebrate Communion than in years past. Some denominations are merging and pooling resources, and people from various traditions are collaborating on projects.

The call of this week is to be mindful of the diversity of our traditions and customs while treasuring what we hold in common. The old advice to "lighten up" is good medicine, because sometimes our differences are delightful and amusing. If someone says, "Let us pray," a Catholic might close the eyes, bow the head and fold hands; a Protestant reach out and clasp hands with the person in the next chair; and someone belonging to an Orthodox tradition might stand up with eyes wide open. Each has taken a different path, but the goal is always the same. This is a week not for focusing on the well-worn paths of divergence, but for mutual delight in a common goal.

Bible Study

Join us as we study The Acts of the Apostles, The spread of the Kingdom

The book of Acts shows the work of Christ continuing beyond his resurrection as He empowers believers with the Holy Spirit to do his work to spread the Kingdom to the ends of the earth. Come and join us starting Monday, January 27th at 9:15am (after 8:30 mass) in the classroom north of church.

Bible study will increase your relationship with Christ, the Father and Holy Spirit.

Please consider joining us. Call Don Schneeberger at 262-853-7393 with any questions.

2025 Tithing Envelopes

Tithing envelopes for 2025 are now available and are placed on the last pew on the Southside of the Church, in alphabetical order.

Please do not use old envelopes, San Pedro has replaced some numbers as new accounts have been opened and some account have been expired.

All accounts are in alphabetical order by last names.
