Support The ABCD

As we journey through the Easter season, we are reminded of the hope and new life the Resurrection brings. The Archbishop's Charities and Development Drive (ABCD) is a tangible way we can respond to this hope by supporting the many ministries that serve those most in need throughout our Archdiocese. Your generous gift to the ABCD helps feed the hungry, care for the sick, support vocations, educate our youth, and so much more. Every gift, no matter the size, makes a difference. If you have not yet made your pledge, we invite you to do so today. Let us come together as one Church, one body in Christ, sharing His love through charity. Give today. Make a difference. Be the Church. Visit www.sanpedroparish.org, click the WeShare icon, contact the San Pedro Parish office at 305.852.5372 or utilize the new "Text-To-Give" program by texting "Pedro" to 833-336-9083 to receive a link to contribute.

Prayer For Pope Francis

O God, faithful rewarder of souls, grant that your departed servant Pope Francis, whom you made successor of Peter and shepherd of your Church, may happily enjoy for ever in your presence in heaven the mysteries of your grace and compassion, which he faithfully ministered on earth. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

"Smoting" or Non-"smoting"?

Some times I get angry at things that frustrate me. So I have to struggle with the line in our first reading, where the disciples were "rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name" (Acts 5:41).

Imagine rejoicing over pain and suffering. These disciples had seen Jesus on the cross. When he rose from the dead, they began to see that his suffering was not a tragic loss, but a sign of his glory. And when they suffered because they believed in him, as in today's reading, they saw that as a way to imitate Jesus on the cross. Those who had followed him in life could also follow him to the cross.

Most of us today find ourselves suffering because we have done wrong. God does not use special interventions to smite sinners. Think of the times we were punished as a child. Think of the times we lost a friend because of a cruel remark. These are the result of our actions. These are sufferings that we would rather avoid.

Jesus, however, suffered for our sins when he was totally innocent. If he could do that, could we not accept suffering for our own sins when it comes? If we behave differently because of it, if we can grow to be better persons, then that suffering can be our way of accepting the cross.

Of course, not all suffering is caused by the sins of the person suffering. The suffering of the innocent is a great mystery, a cause for sorrow and a challenge to help where we can. But like growing pains, all suffering is a step to new life in Christ. And that is what Easter is about.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Gospel today sees Peter and his colleagues after the Resurrection, returning to Galilee and resuming the family business. They are fishing by night. Although it is true that fish feed by night, the mention of darkness here is more about the human spirit than it is about fishing advice. Modern life keeps darkness effectively under control; much of the world has been glowing radiantly through the night for a century. Yet just as surely as the Risen Christ breaks into Peter's fishing, so does he break into the usual patterns of our own darkness, electric lights notwithstanding. It is Easter, and we are the people of the light.

In our tradition, Evening Prayer, celebrated in monasteries, parishes, cathedrals, and homes everywhere, is a kind of solemn protest against the darkness and its claims, an act of praise for our light-bearing God, and a commitment to carrying that light forward. Sunset is a turning point of our day, felt less acutely in an electrified world, but still an effective reminder that one day darkness overtakes us all. Yet our Eastering has taught us in a hundred ways that the victory belongs to the Bearer of Light. Easter summons us to transform our everyday "blackouts," perhaps in a way as simple as a whispered prayer of thanks at evening for the blessings of the day.

San Pedro's Jubilee 2025 Pilgrimage

San Pedro's Jubilee 2025 Pilgrimage to the Basilica of St. Mary Star of the Sea Key West is scheduled for May 24th - sign up forms are located by our church doors.

ARCHDIOCESE OF MIAMI
PLACES OF PRAYER
JUBILEE 2025

Archbishop Thomas Wenski has designated the following special places of prayer for Jubilee Year, for pilgrims who cannot travel to Rome, offering opportunities for reconciliation, indulgences, and other events intended to strengthen and revive faith: groups of faithful who wish to organize pilgrimages should coordinate with the designated site so that the pilgrims can be properly welcomed and have access to the Sacraments and Confession.
