Hurricane Prayer

Eternal Father, Creator of all the world and all that is in it.

We beg you to spare the Florida Keys and the world from storms and hurricanes. If any should occur, we ask that they all go out to sea where they may do the least amount of damage to anyone. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Taking Care of Business

When we were kids, my brothers and sisters and I thought that you were not supposed to say the blessing before meals in a restaurant. We were probably afraid of being embarrassed if non-believers saw us praying. I think of that when I hear St. Paul telling Timothy, "God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control" (2 Timothy 1:7). Our readings mention the difficulties that people of faith will encounter, and each reading has its own way of facing those hardships.

Jesus gives the practical advice: Look at the difficulties of being a disciple as just part of your job. So if the Lord says I must forgive those who hurt me, or be patient with customers, or share what I have with the poor—no problem; it's part of the job of a disciple. Too tired to go to church after work on a holy day? Just taking care of business.

Paul reminds us in the second reading to stir the gifts of the Spirit into flame. If you take time to pray every day, if you look for God in other people, if you see difficulties as your share of the cross—you will begin to experience those gifts.

We can trust that this is more than just wishful thinking by going to the first reading. When the prophet cries out for help with the misery and violence in the world, he hears God's promise that the vision (of hope for deliverance) will be fulfilled even if it seems to be delayed. We too hear that promise when we start to get discouraged, for God's promise "will not disappoint" (Habakkuk 2:3).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Sometimes human relationships go awry, but Christ's choice for us is irrevocable. In marriage celebrations, the Church always recalls God's faithfulness to help prepare married couples for enduring the inevitable rough spots. The Byzantine liturgy does this by adorning the couple with crowns that remind them of the martyr's crown. The couple therefore takes on a vocation of witnessing to the sacredness of life in all of its suffering and joy, and of keeping their eyes fixed on the banquet of heaven.

In Eastern theology, people have a liturgical vocation to give God praise, and marriage fits within that plan. It is not so much saying prayers that counts, but becoming prayer. Interestingly, in this liturgy the couple never utters a word other than joining in the community's chants; there are no marriage vows as such. There is therefore not a hint of our Western Christian sense that marriage is a legal contract. Rather, it is all about living out one's baptismal vocation, embracing the cross, pouring oneself out in love, and opening to the grace of the Holy Spirit.

San Pedro Men's Club Meeting!

The San Pedro Men's Club will meet next on Tuesday, October 7, at 5:00pm in Williams Hall. We are looking forward to an exciting new year! The Men's Club usually meets on Tuesdays. We are inviting anyone who has been thinking of doing a little more for San Pedro. The meetings are typically less than one hour, once a month, no further work or meetings are necessary unless you choose to volunteer for something. Thank you for considering joining this group as we plan a variety of interesting and fun activities to help the San Pedro Parish. Thank You! Please Call Dr. Cash 305-619-6771 with any questions!

FCAA Will Soon Begin Working Near San Pedro!

The existing drinking water pipe has exceeded its useful lifespan and the FCAA crew has been working hard to replace it as fast as possible. The crew will be approaching the San Pedro Parish area very soon, as such they are asking for your cooperation to help the installation run smoothly.

It's possible the Florida Department of Transportation will not allow left-hand turns through the work zone. If you are traveling North to enter San Pedro, you may need to continue past San Pedro and make a U-Turn when it is safe and legal to do so. You also may not be able to turn left out of the parking lot and will need to turn right and make a U-Turn when it is safe and legal to do so.

Any questions can be directed to FCAA; email: community@fkaa.com,
