Hurricane Prayer

Eternal Father, Creator of all the world and all that is in it.

We beg you to spare the Florida Keys and the world from storms and hurricanes. If any should occur, we ask that they all go out to sea where they may do the least amount of damage to anyone. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Let us be that one, grateful for the many blessings God has given us. The ABCD is a powerful way to show gratitude by serving others. Your support helps our Archdiocese bring healing, hope and dignity to those on the margins. Be a sign of thanksgiving through your participation in the ABCD. Donate Today, visit www.sanpedroparish.org, click the WeShare icon, contact the San Pedro Parish office at 305.852.5372 or utilize the new "Text-To-Give" program by texting "Pedro" to 833-336-9083 to receive a link to contribute.

Miracles of Faith

Besides being cured, what do Nathan (first reading) and the leper who thanked Jesus (Gospel) have in common? Both of them began to believe. Nathan proclaims Israel's God to be the only God. The only leper who returned to thank Jesus was "glorifying God in a loud voice" (Luke 17:15). It makes me wonder, what miracles do we see that help us grow in faith?

For an answer, we can look at a second thing they had in common: they both asked for help. Sometimes we get caught up in self-sufficiency mode, thinking we have to handle all our problems by ourselves. We may miss out on ways to solve those problems by not asking for help. If you think asking for help is a sign of weakness, you may be missing a chance for God to act through one of your friends and give you support. And, of course, you can ask God for help in prayer.

We may have friends who help us in times of need or inspire us with their faith, but we have to decide to make a leap of faith ourselves. The third thing that Nathan and the leper did in common was express their faith. You can spend your whole life thinking that you are a Christian, but if you never express that faith, it will be just a theory. St. Paul in the second reading, for example, was suffering in prison, but he didn't mind because his suffering demonstrated the importance of Jesus' message to him. So he wrote from prison in the hope that other Christians would be encouraged in their faith. Perhaps you know of someone who inspired you with their faithfulness and dedication. Having a friend who helps us grow in faith can be a very nice miracle indeed.

Saints And Special ObservancesSunday: Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary TimeTuesday: St. Callistus I, Pope & MartyrWednesday: Memorial of St. Teresa of Jesus, Virgin & Dr. of the ChurchFriday: Memorial of St. Ignatius of Antioch, Bishop & MartyrTREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Christian liturgy has always contained an opportunity to make a choice for sharing. From the beginning, Christians pooled their resources, especially for the care of widows and orphans, at the weekly Eucharist. Over the years, the collection became detached from the liturgy and baskets or plates would be passed through the community while the Mass was going on at the altar, or contributions would be collected at the doors. In Milan's Ambrosian Rite, these gifts have always brought to the altar by lay people in procession. In German countries, the ancient custom was for the entire assembly to process with their gifts—first the men, then the women, then the priests and deacons—to offer their gifts at the altar. The old ceremony of canonization included a curious vestige of this procession: people would present the pope with two loaves of bread, two barrels of wine and water, five candles, and three cages containing pigeons or turtledoves!

AQUEDUCT AUTHORITY
Providing Quality Water Services to the Keys

FKAA Will Soon Begin Working Near San Pedro!

The existing drinking water pipe has exceeded its useful lifespan and the FKAA crew has been working hard to replace it as fast as possible. The crew will be approaching the San Pedro Parish area very soon, as such they are asking for your cooperation to help the installation run smoothly.

It's possible the Florida Department of Transportation will not allow left-hand turns through the work zone. If you are traveling North to enter San Pedro, you may need to continue past San Pedro and make a U-Turn when it is safe and legal to do so. You also may not be able to turn left out of the parking lot and will need to turn right and make a U-Turn when it is safe and legal to do so.

Any questions can be directed to FKAA; email: community@fkaa.com,
